CENTERING THOUGHT

When Palm Sunday occasions come, let us embrace them with enthusiasm. It is a time for the adult within us to listen to the child and celebrate with joy and thanksgiving. But we need to also hear the mature adult within us. If ever we leap to the hasty conclusion that Christian love will automatically bring favor and honor, listen to the adult voice within. The cross remains a far more potent symbol of genuine loving than do palm branches.

- Rev. Bruce Prewer

Jesus comes today!

Jesus comes today!
Prepare to meet your God!
No Presidential cavalcade encircles him with might;
the shepherds kiss a worker's child who loves till all are reconciled:
Prepare to meet your God!

Jesus comes today!
Prepare to meet your God!
No massed Convention roars its praise
to hail the new messiah;
love has no powers to lay aside,
so crowds will have him crucified:
Prepare to meet your God!

Jesus comes today!
Prepare to meet your God!
No Primaries can pave his way
to be the people's choice;
he chooses us, and calls our name,
and life can never be the same:
Prepare to meet your God!
